

CURRICULUM VITAE OF ANNA R. ALEXANDER

1226 East Lee Street, #10
Tucson, AZ 85719
520-906-1209
ara1@email.arizona.edu

EDUCATION

Fall, 2008 – Present

University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
PhD in History
Expected Graduation Date: Spring, 2012

Fall, 2008

Universidad de las Américas and Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla
Visiting Doctoral Student and Researcher

Fall, 2006 – Spring, 2008

University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
Master of Arts in Latin American Studies
Thesis Title: “Counting the Days: Calendars and Consumption during the Mexican Miracle, 1946-1982.” Advisor Dr. William H. Beezley

Fall, 2002 – Spring, 2006

California State University, Chico
Bachelor of Arts in History

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Fall, 2009

University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
Graduate Assistant in Teaching – “Modern Mexico: Como Mexico, No Hay Dos”
Dr. William H. Beezley, Professor of History

Spring, 2009

University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
Graduate Assistant in Teaching – “Sonora: A Description of Place in Arid America”
John Messina, AIA, Instructor

Spring, 2008

University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
Graduate Assistant in Teaching – “Sonora: A Description of Place in Arid America”
John Messina, AIA, Instructor

GRANTS AND AWARDS

Fall 2008

Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education, Southwest Institute for Research on Women, University of Arizona

Fall 2008

Language Stipend, Southwest Institute for Research on Women, University of Arizona

Spring 2007

Tinker Foundation Summer Research Grant for Latin America, Center for Latin American Studies, University of Arizona

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

April 9-12, 2008

Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona

Presented "The Almanac Previsión y Seguridad and the Mexican Miracle" at the 55th Annual Rocky Mountain Council for Latin American Studies

November 15, 2007

University of Arizona

Presented "Mexican Calendars: Consumer Culture and National Identity, 1930-1960" at the 3rd Annual Tinker Symposium on Graduate Research in Latin America

April 29, 2006

Santa Clara University, Santa Clara, CA

Presented "The Advent of Radio Broadcasting and the Effect on Mexican Music" at the Northern California Regional Conference of the Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AND RELATED EXPERIENCE

Fall 2009

Ombudswoman, History Graduate Student Association, Department of History, University of Arizona

Fall 2009

Mentorship Coordinator, History Graduate Student Association, Department of History, University of Arizona

Summer 2009

Graduate Student Intern, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Mexico Institute in Washington D.C.

Fall 2008

"Women's Rights, Citizenships, and Identities in a North American Context," Southwest Institute for Research on Women, Exchange Program with Universidad de las Américas in Cholula, Puebla

Fall, 2007

Archival Technician for the Western Archeological Conservation Center at the National Parks Services, Arizona State Museum

Spring, 2007

Assisted in Archival Research for Production of the Documentary and Biography of Gov. Raul H. Castro of Arizona, Special Collections, University Library, University of Arizona

Spring, 2007

Chair “The Borderlands and Peoples” Panel at the 54th Annual Rocky Mountain Conference for Latin American Studies, Santa Fe, New Mexico

Fall, 2005 and Spring, 2008

President, History Honors Society, California State University, Chico

Spring 2006

Editorial Board The Chico Historian, vol. 16, 2006

LANGUAGES

English – Native Language

Spanish – Speak, Read, and Write with High Proficiency

Portuguese- Conversation, Read, and Write